A Little About Our Show

"When somebody dies, what's the right thing to say? What are you supposed to do? How are you supposed to feel? Nobody really knows the answers to these questions, and they hang in the air of a high school when a student dies suddenly in a car accident. As the memorial service approaches and rumors fill the hallways, everyone navigates how to grieve the girl they knew in a very different ways. Ian McWethy renders the unexpected conflict and connection to be found in grief with knowing humor and bracing honesty."

Making Homeownership a Reality for More People

It's a great option if you:

- Want to live in a single-family home, in a great community with quality schools
- Are a first-time homebuyer who's cautious about buying a home now, but may want to buy in the future
- Are a home seeker in the process of relocating but aren't sure where you want to settle down
- Can't obtain a mortgage right now

Senior Spotlight

Alyssa Bowlin (Reese): Alyssa has worked on every production put on by Wesley Chapel High in the last four years. As Troupe Vice President, she has met so many incredible people and is thankful for every single one. She hopes to continue acting throughout her life and will be studying Marine Biology next year at USF. Thank you Thespians, thank you Mrs. Neff, and thank you Mr. Gaudet!

Isabel Harper (Jane): This is Isabel's second production at Wesley Chapel and she is excited to be playing Jane following being a member of set crew last year. After high school, Isabel is going to Florida Atlantic University and majoring in Musical Theatre. She would like to thank everyone who was a part of the Spring Play this year for all their hard work. She would also like to thank all the Thespians in Troupe 6172 for making this year as president so memorable and fun. Lastly, she would like to thank Mr. Gaudet for making her a better actress and person.

Barrett Hutchins (Costume Crew): This is Barrett's first production put on by Wesley Chapel and he had a lot of fun. It was really cool meeting all the people who worked on the production. Next year he is going to Minnesota where he will work towards becoming a Flight Attendant. Bye Wesley Chapel! Oh, and hi Mom!

Abby Ingram (Costume Crew): This is Abby's sixth production with Wesley Chapel, and is happy to be a part of Costume Crew. She thanks her wonderful parents (as well as her three cats) and her fellow thespians for a fantastic high school experience. Abby starts at University of Central Florida this fall and plans to study Aerospace Engineering.

Mackenzie Meador (Lead Makeup Designer): Kenzie has always had a soft spot for theatre and was proud to dedicate a majority of her high school career to the productions put on. She is a proud thespian. She would also like to give a shout-out to this year's makeup crew for being such an amazing group of people!

Jade Phan (Set Crew Chief): Jade worked with set crew last year and enjoyed it so much she is now Set Lead. Next year, Jade will be studying Nursing at USF. She would like to thank Mrs. Neff and Mr. Gaudet for their dedication and support.

Katie Richard (Lead Costume Designer): This is Katie's second production at Wesley Chapel, and she is excited to work on the Spring Play as Costume Lead. She also performed in and worked as Costume Lead for the Comedy Show. Katie will continue to act and design and will be studying Theatre and Environmental Science. She would like to thank Mr. Gaudet and Mrs. Neff for their support and guidance.

Lance Trejo (George): Lance will never forget the amazing memories he made from acting. Having the chance to do scenes with other amazing actors will always be special to him. He would like to thank everyone who had to deal with him as an acting partner, and would like to thank Mr. Gaudet for helping grow as an actor and a person. Lance will be continuing his education at UF and take acting opportunities whenever he gets the chance. Love you all and keep acting!

Alexis Wirtzfeld (Set Crew): Alexis tortured Mrs. Neff for the past four years by never showing up to her class ever, but she is still Mrs. Neff's favorite student she's ever had. After she graduates she plans to slowly slip into the dark abyss and maybe accomplish something someday...maybe. Probably not though. Lol.☺
