A note about this play...

"The Love of Three Oranges" is a Commedia Dell'arte play. Commedia Dell'arte is a type of improvisational theater, popularized in 16th-18th Century Italy, where the actors are given basic plot points, but no dialogue! Instead the actors come up with everything they say. This type of show is very unique, because no two showings are completely the same. The actors stay onstage for most of the play and sometimes even play scenery or props themselves!
